

MOYER GOES BACK TO STRIKE ZONE

TESTIFIED BEFORE GRAND JURY ABOUT HIS ASSAULT AND DEPORTATION.

GOVERNOR FINISHES PROBE

Refuses Emphatically to Try to Get Mine Owners to Recognize Unions.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 8.—Chas. H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and Charles Thinner, auditor of the organization, today told to the grand jury here versions of the Moyer deportation episode of December 26. Less than two hours were consumed in the grand jury room, the men then returning to the hotel in Hancock, when they were taken a fortnight ago. The nature of their testimony was kept secret.

Except for the fact that a big crowd of union men greeted their leader on his arrival and stood about the hotel in groups, no incident occurred to recall the intense bitterness that preceded the deportation. Both federation men were guarded by deputy sheriffs.

Except for their trips from the railroad station to the hotel and to the court house in Houghton and back to Hancock the two made no appearance in public.

O. N. Hilton, chief counsel for the Federation, met the party at the hotel and immediately went into conference with his clients. It was presumed that developments in Governor Ferris' inquiry into strike conditions were discussed but no announcement was made. Victor Berger, former Milwaukee congressman, who is here as a member of a committee from the National Socialist party, was admitted to the room.

Governor Ferris and Moyer did not meet. The governor left Houghton in an automobile early in the afternoon and did not return for several hours. Meanwhile the Federation men had completed their visit in Houghton.

Governor's Probe Completed.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 8.—So far as seeking information was concerned Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris of Michigan, virtually completed his mission to the copper strike zone tonight. There remained the problem of a settlement but indications were that the governor's activities in this direction might be postponed. He has it known that if possible he would leave for Big Rapids tomorrow forenoon. In any case it was said, he intended to board an outgoing train tomorrow night.

Chief interest today centered in the testimony of copper mine operators. It largely was an historical discussion, although emphasis was laid on the opinion of individual mine officials that union labor as such was not repugnant to them. They, however, made it plain that the Western Federation of Miners could hope for no consideration from company sources. They declared this position could not be changed.

After the conference with the mine men the Governor met a delegation of Italian and Finnish union workmen who came to ask state protection. They told the state executive they were subjected to daily threats and abuse from strikers. They said they had no use for the Western Federation of Miners or any other union.

Tonight the Governor met Victor Berger, Milwaukee; Seymour Steinhilber, Chicago; and Charles Edward Russell, New York, who are investigating the situation for the national executive committee of the Socialist party.

Mr. Russell told the state executive he could end the trouble if he would use his power and influence with the mining companies to force them to recognize the Western Federation of Miners.

"Will you do it?" he asked.

"No, sir, I will not," was the emphatic reply.

Mr. Berger proposed that nine guards and deputies be withdrawn. Mr. Steinhilber suggested that the state might establish tents for the housing of the men. He said the companies had no legal right to own and rent houses under their charters, but Grant Fellows, attorney general of the state, disagreed with him.

SAVED ALMOST A MILLION

Bids for Projectiles for Navy Show a Saving This Year of $889,825.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Secretary Daniels announced today that bids just submitted for the manufacture of projectiles for the navy showed a decrease of $889,825 compared with prices paid last year. If the department takes advantage of the right to increase orders by 20 per cent, Secretary Daniels said, a saving of $1,067,790 for the government will be the result of the restoration of open and real competition between bidders.

Contracts to be let call for the manufacture of 3500 fourteen inch armor piercing shells, fifteen hundred twelve inch shells, and 30,000 four and five inch cogon shells, the annual "food" supply for the navys guns.

MOTHER--DAUGHTER ELOPED TOGETHER

SKIATOOK INTO THE LIME LIGHT WITH DOUBLE WEDDING.

Mother, Eloping, Got on Same Train With Daughter Who Was Also Eloping.

PORT SMITH, Ark., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ella Denison, aged 46, and J. W. Reeder, both of Skiatook, Okla., boarded a train at that place this morning intending to elope to this city and keep their marriage a secret. Aboard the train they discovered Mrs. Denison's daughter, Nellie, aged 15 years, eloping here for the same purpose with 12 W. Whitlock. The mother objected to her daughter's marriage, owing to her age. When she learned, however, that she would require the signature of a personal acquaintance to her own marriage license, she consented to the daughter's marriage on condition that Whitlock would sign her license as witness. Justice John Hiner married both couples with one ceremony. The brides attracted much attention with their white costumes and furs.

TACK MUST SUE TO REGAIN HIS TRUNKS

ANOTHER OUTRAGE INFLECTED BY FEDERAL LIQUOR LAW.

Because a Bottle of Champagne in His Trunk Broke, Tulsa Man May Lose His Property.

FT. SMITH, Ark., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—If T. E. Tack, Jr., of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who is said to be a wealthy oil operator, desires to regain possession of the three trunks and their contents seized by the United States marshal here last night, he will be compelled to file an intervention suit and secure a favorable decision from the federal court before Col. Frank Mayes, the marshal, will release them. Upon advice of United States prosecuting Attorney Boardman, today Marshal Mayes prepared proceedings against Tack's valuable and undecorated trunk which will be sold at public auction as contraband goods.

The trunks, billed to Tulsa, were transferred from the Kansas City Southern to the Midland Valley Road last night. Enroute to the latter station one spring a leak. The baggage man decided the trunk contained liquor and as the government laws prohibit the introduction of intoxicants into the Indian country in which Tulsa is unfortunately situated, the railroad refused to handle the shipment further. The marshal was advised and seized the goods.

Tack, returning with his wife from an European tour, purchased abroad several bottles of champagne, wines, and other liquors. One of the bottles broke, resulting the leak. Precious goods valued at $1,200 in said were found in one trunk and $500 worth of men's clothing in another.

Theodore Tack, Jr., is the son of the pioneer, as well as one of the most prominent oil men of the country. Mr. Tack lives at Tulsa and manages his father's business in the Oklahoma field. He was married about a year ago, his wife being the daughter of one of the most prominent citizens of New Orleans, La.

PUT MUZZLE ON ARMY OFFICIALS

NO MORE "FREE PRESS MATTER" TO BE GIVEN NEWS-PAPERS.

CAN'T DISCUSS A 'POLICY'

"Any Matters of Debatable Nature" Are Not to Be Debated or Talked By Army Officers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Officers in the United States army in future will not be permitted to discuss publicly "any matters of a debatable nature." New regulations to that point will follow an exchange of memoranda today between Secretary Garrison and Staff General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, in regard to a published article telling of "free press matters" furnished to newspapers by Arthur W. Dunn, a writer in the employ of the Infantry association.

Some of the matter referred to is said to have dealt directly with the Mexican situation, though much of it was made up of interviews with officers on the movement for a larger army and certain reforms in organization—the objects of the Infantry association.

In file memorandum to General Wood Secretary Garrison said: "Please look into the case sufficiently to ascertain whether officers of the army are furnishing matter to the newspapers concerning questions of policy under discussion between the department and congress or any other matters not strictly within the line of duty of such officers."

"I feel that the best interest of the country and of the army would be served if officers would not include in public debate or discussion, or in any of a public pronouncement with respect to army matters of a debatable nature."

"I would like to suggest the formulation of some regulation that will advise officers of the proper attitude I think they should assume toward this matter."

General Wood replied: "I have made inquiry of Major Johnson, editor of the Infantry association, and find that it has and is employing Mr. Dunn as an agent in the publication of data to the army with a view to spreading abroad what it believes to be valuable information—information which should be in the hands of the people. I am informed by Major Johnson that they have limited the material to that embodying the approved policy of the war department. Major Johnson has been informed of our wishes that all activities of this sort be terminated and he has assured me he will take the necessary steps to bring about this end."

"I will take immediate steps to present to you for consideration regulations which will advise officers of the army of what the department considers to be their proper attitude with reference to discussion of matters pertaining to the service or publication of articles concerning the same."

C. O. P. DEAD AS CAESAR

At Least That Is the Opinion of a Prominent New York Bull Moose.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 8.—"The Republican party is as dead as Caesar," said Bainbridge Colby of New York speaking tonight at the opening session of the State Progressive conference here.

Mr. Colby spoke in caustic terms of the attitude of Senator Cummins, Senator Borah and former Governor Hadley toward the Progressive party.

"Intellectually they see the vigor of Progressive party principles," he said. "As men of intelligence they recognize it must prevail, but as men in politics they are afraid of it."

He said that the Progressive party is not a party of office, but a party of principle. He said that the Progressive party is not a party of office, but a party of principle. He said that the Progressive party is not a party of office, but a party of principle.

These facts appeared in the navy year book for 1913, issued by the senate committee on naval affairs. Great Britain held her place as the first naval power with 2,591,291 tons. Germany ranks second with a tonnage of 1,228,208; the United States is third with 921,814 tons; France is fourth with 876,165, and Japan fifth with 792,093.

Declare They Will Burn Region If Work Is Not Furnished To All.

REGINA, Sask., Jan. 8.—In view of repeated threats of violence from leaders of an army of unemployed, Regina will be under martial law tomorrow night. A detachment of mounted police will patrol the city.

WILL NOT RUN AT SOUND OF BATTLE

FEDERALS WILL BE FIGHTING AT OKINAWA IF IT IS NECESSARY.

Expect Battle For Supremacy Along the Border Will Be Fought In a Few Days.

OKINAWA, N.Y., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Today to Okinawa from a considerable number of miles inland, General Wood, commander of Federal forces, and his staff, accompanied by the corps of the rear army, the rebels were believed to be concentrating upon the present position of General Wood's forces to present a solid front when they again march on Okinawa.

All main generals who remain in the trenches here with the 42nd Infantry and every hour of delay gave them opportunity to make greater preparations to resist an attack. They said General Wood would have had to increase the rebel force greatly to meet the six day battle of last week when the rebels came within 100 yards of the Okinawa trenches without being able to take them.

General Francisco Castro, commander of the federal regular army, said he was confident his army never would be beaten by Villa. He said he was well aware that the impending conflict was momentous to the liberty of the nation. He said, "It would settle, he said, a question whether the Mexican government was to maintain its authority in the north or whether the lawless rabble" which goes by the name of Constitutionalists is to have full sway.

The federal commander said his soldiers had endured hardships, had gone without food for days, ragged and footsore, they had marched over the waterless desert as a token of their loyalty and he did not believe they would run at the sound of battle.

"We'll never retreat but all of us will die right here in Okinawa if our ammunition gives out," said General Castro, himself scarred in a torn and dusty uniform as evidence of the recent fighting.

Reports reached headquarters that since their withdrawal from the battle on Monday the rebels had not only been strengthened by reinforcements from Chihuahua but that they also had obtained quantities of ammunition. The federal army has only what ammunition was left after the battle and has no means of replenishing its stores.

A story of the death of Colonel Luis Colly, relative of the rich Terrance family, who joined the federal army as a volunteer, was told today by a priest. The priest said Colly, undoubtedly shot by his own men in last Sunday's engagement, had requested when dying that the rumor of his shooting be kept from the rebels, as they might consider the federalists had become amenable.

Marines Are Transferred.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Four hundred marines in the Panama canal zone today were ordered to join American warships off the east coast of Mexico, which will double the marine guard aboard the vessels.

Secretary Daniels explained that the transfer was for the health of the men who have been on the latitudes for many months and whose duty there ended when the war department recently sent regular troops to permanentlyarrison the canal zone. He said the action could not be connected in any way with the recent visit of John Lind to Gulfport.

Reports to the state department indicate that contending factions in Mexico are taking a breathing spell in preparation for a series of general engagements at the border and as far east as Tampico on the gulf.

None of today's reports told of fresh battles. Federalists at Ojinaga, Nuevo Laredo and Tampico are busy with pick and shovel strengthening defenses, while Constitutionalists are waiting for ammunition and reforming their lines for another attack.

Now that the site has been tentatively decided the next question will naturally follow, when will the building be completed? but that one cannot be answered very well at this time on account of the fact that weather conditions as well as a number of other things will have to be taken into consideration.

INSPECTORS ARREST MAY BE BOOMERANG

IRREGULARITIES CROP UP IN SHAFTER COUNTY ELECTION.

LINCOLN COUNTY EXCITED

Four Ballot Boxes Are Seized by Officers in County Where Vote Was Close.

CHATHAM, Okla., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Election frauds tended to wreck the hopes of new Shafter county officers resulted in a boomerang, according to the Shafter county campaign managers here. Tonight Chatham is claiming that the new county is certain as the result of the election Wednesday and the resulting frauds in Lincoln county where the voting had been very close.

According to information received here, four of the special election inspectors, appointed by the governor to conduct the election in Lincoln county were arrested today by Lincoln county officers and the ballot boxes in their possession taken charge of by the officers.

This it is said invalidated the ballots in the boxes confiscated and as the majority of which are against the new county, Lincoln county is taken off the doubtful list and placed in the Shafter county column.

However, the opposition in Creek, Payne and Lincoln counties have now given up the fight and promise to carry the matter to the highest courts. The ballots will be turned over to the governor, there counted and the result proclaimed.

Inspectors Are Arrested.

CHANDLER, Okla., Jan. 8.—With four of the election inspectors in jail charged with "drunkenness," it is claimed here tonight that the attempt to organize a new county named Shafter, failed through the failure of the new county to secure 50 per cent of the vote cast in Lincoln county. The vote in this county fell short 65 votes of the required amount.

Fraud charges that resulted in the arrest of four inspectors and the seizing of ballot boxes created much interest here today. It was reported that Chatham, had notified all inspectors to bring their ballot boxes to Chatham to be kept there until Saturday. Inspector Smith of precinct two refused to go to Chatham and Chatham supporters showed him an alleged telegram signed by Secretary Danaher of the state election board, ordering him to bring the boxes to Oklahoma City via Chatham.

Smith, suspecting the telegram a fake called up Riley at Oklahoma City who said he never sent any such telegram and ordered Smith to take his box to Chandler.

The Lincoln county attorney later heard that four inspectors were preparing to leave for Chatham with their ballots in an automobile. He issued a warrant for their arrest and the men were brought to Chandler and locked up on charges of "drunkenness."

The ballot boxes were taken in charge by the county election board and will be held until word is received from the state election board. It is claimed here that the new county failed by reason of the failure to secure enough votes in this county, although all admit a contest is certain.
